Wild West Hoedown and BBQ Planned at the Fullerton Arboretum March 7, 2009

(Fullerton, CA) – The Fullerton Arboretum is happy to announce a “Wild West Hoedown” and barbeque is planned for Saturday, March 7, 2009 from 5:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m. on the Fullerton Arboretum museum pavilion. This event is open to the public and members; however reservations are required by February 28, 2009 to guarantee attendance. Plan to saddle up old Paint and mosey on down to the Arboretum on the 7th for an old fashioned, authentic western “themed” night of good food, entertainment and refreshments.

Guests are “wanted” by the Fullerton Arboretum for a knee slappin’, foot stompin’ good old time. Wear your best cowboy/cowgirl duds and get ready to be entertained by the award-winnin’ “Final Destination Cloggers.” And there’s more. Country western line dancing to a live band, plus tasty vittles by Big B’s BBQ with all the fixin’s planned. Beer, wine and sarsaparilla are included with a full western barbecue meal, cooked on-site.

Don’t get caught in the stampede competing for a seat. For reservation information, call (714) 278-4792 or email to jmcgarvey@fullerton.edu. The cost is $70 per person, payable in advance. Seating is limited and subject to first-come, first-serve reservations. This event promises to be an enjoyable evening for everyone--just come and have fun.

Established in 1979, the Fullerton Arboretum has served the community as a premier resource for ecological, horticultural and historical education. The Arboretum is the largest botanical garden in Orange County. Encompassing 26 lush acres, The Fullerton Arboretum has assembled a permanent collection of over 4,000 unique and unusual plant species from around the world. With its ponds, streams and wildlife, the Fullerton Arboretum offers a tranquil retreat from a fast-paced urban life. The Fullerton Arboretum is open daily from 8:00 a.m. to 4:45 p.m. Check our website at www.fullertonarboretum.org for more information or call (714)278-3407.
