Volunteer Opportunities are “Springing Up” at the Fullerton Arboretum

(Fullerton, CA) – The Friends of the Fullerton Arboretum is in need of volunteers for a variety of upcoming spring events. With more than 40,000 plants growing for the Monster Tomato and Pepper Sale (March 19-22), volunteers are needed to assist with transplanting (early March) and during the sale.

Volunteers are also needed to help with children’s activities and plant sitting at the annual Green Scene Garden Show, the largest outdoor garden show in California (April 18-19). A new museum exhibit featuring the El Toro Marine Air Station and its impact on the development of Orange County will open April 25th. Docents for the exhibit are needed weekends throughout the year.
